PRESS COMMUNIQUE.

Dated Fort St. George, the 4th April 1939.

No. 47—

Emigration of Indian seamen.—A large number of British Indian seamen and adepts of India in India proceed to countries overseas for the purpose of engaging themselves in skilled or unskilled work. Emigration of Indians is controlled by the provisions of the Indian Emigration Act, 1933 (VII of 1933), as subsequently amended and the rules framed thereunder. The Act applies to any person of Indian parentage (including a subject of a State in India) departing out of British India by sea as well either under an agreement to work for him in any capacity beyond the limits of India or who is intended to depart otherwise than by a relative, if he departs for the purpose of, or with the intention of, working for hire or engaging in agriculture in any country beyond the limits of India.

2. Unskilled workers.—Emigration of unskilled workers out of British India except in conformity with the provisions of Chapter III of the Indian Emigration Act, and the rules framed thereunder is prohibited. No person may engage or assist another to emigrate except to such countries and on such terms and conditions as the Governor-General in Council, by notification in the Gazette of India, may specify in this behalf. Unskilled work includes engaging in agriculture.

3. Skilled workers.—Emigration of Indians out of British India for the purpose of skilled work is governed by Chapter IV of the Indian Emigration Act. For the purposes of the Act, "skilled work" means—

- (1) working as an artisan such as mason, carpenter, blacksmith, goldsmith, cooper, wheelwright, etc., or
- (2) working as a clerk or shop assistant, or
- (3) working for the purpose of any exhibition or entertainment such as circus, paper, bandman, actor, athlete, etc., or
- (4) service in any restaurant, tea-house, or other place of public resort, or
- (5) domestic service, or
- (6) working as a nurse, midwife, or telephone operator, or
- (7) any other occupation which the Governor-General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare to be skilled work.

Any person who desires to engage, or to assist, another to emigrate for the purpose of skilled work should apply in the first instance to the Protector of Emigrants concerned and should supply him with information as to the terms of the agreement under which such person is to be engaged. Agreements between the employer and the employee registered in the office of the Protector of Emigrants in India may be filed with the Controller of Labour, Malaya, within one month of the arrival in Malaya of the person emigrating to that country. On being so filed, the agreements would, under the Malayan Labour Code, become enforceable in Malaya.

It is desirable that persons who are engaged or assisted to emigrate should be in possession of a certificate in Form 14 issued under rule 39 (3) of the Indian Emigration Rules or of an endorsement from the Protector of Emigrants to the effect that the provisions of the Indian Emigration Act have been complied with in their case. The production of such evidence will save the person emigrating from further enquiries in connection with his departure by sea from India.

4. Ordinary passengers.—Other passengers who claim that they are not persons emigrating within the meaning of the Act, should be in possession of certificates to that effect. These certificates may be obtained either from a Superintendent Magistrate appointed under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1938, under section 2 (36) of the Act or from a Protector of Emigrants under section 4 (f) of the Act.

5. The possession of a passport does not exempt a person to whom the Indian Emigration Act applies from the necessity of compliance with the provisions of that Act. If he does not belong to the category of persons emigrating, the provisions of paragraph 4 above will apply.

6. Any person who is in doubt regarding the application of the Act, either to himself or to those accompanying him may apply to the Protector of Emigrants at Madras, Negapatnam, Madras, or Tuticorin for advice.

7. Any person emigrating or engaging or assisting others to emigrate except in conformity with the provisions of the Indian Emigration Act, 1933, and the rules made thereunder is liable to be prosecuted and fined by a criminal court.

Long studies of the immune system have shown that the immune system is not a simple, one-way street. It is a complex, multi-layered system that can be influenced by a variety of factors, including stress, diet, and exercise. The immune system is also highly adaptable, and can change its response to different threats. This adaptability is what allows the immune system to protect the body from a wide range of pathogens. However, this adaptability can also be a double-edged sword, as it can lead to autoimmune diseases where the immune system attacks the body's own tissues. Understanding the immune system is a complex task, and one that is still being actively researched.

Some 40-50% of experimental cases in which the above mentioned effects occur, a transient, mild-to-moderate, but sustained, increase in the number of spontaneous seizures is observed. There is, however, no effect on the frequency of spontaneous seizures in the animals in which the effects of such low-dose and transiently administered diazepam are prevented by administration of the antagonist flumazenil or by co-administration of a benzodiazepine receptor antagonist, such as Ro 15-4581.
